Telephone tapping

*114. DR. V. MAITREYAN: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that selective category of persons are being subjected to telephone tapping across the country;

(b) if so, even the politicians who are mainly senior functionaries of the opposition party are being subjected to telephone tapping;

(c) if so, the reasons for this type of phone tapping exercises undertaken across the country; and

(d) the basis on which the people are selected for this type of telephone tapping?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (d) Under the Indian Telegraph Act, 1885 and the rules made thereunder, the Union Home Secretary in the Government of India and the Secretary, in-charge of Home Department in the case of State Governments can allow interception of messages in the interest of sovereignty and integrity of India, security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States, public order and for preventing incitement to the commission of an offence. There is a strict legal and administrative regime to ensure that this power is exercised only as per the said provision.

Hike in cement prices

*115. SHRI N.R. GOVINDARAJAR: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether the supply of cement in the country has been affected and its prices have gone up recently;

(b) if so, the increase in the prices of cement registered during the last one year, month-wise, and the impact thereof on the construction industry;

(c) whether the Builders Association of India has protested by announcing stoppage of construction activity in the country against unfair business practices of cement manufactures; and

(d) if so, the action taken/proposed to be taken by Government against cement manufacturers and the steps taken by Government to bring down the prices of cement?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI KAMAL NATH): (a) and (b) The production and despatches of cement have been increasing every year. The total production of cement was 127.57 million tonne, 141.81 million tonne, 155.66 million tonne and 135.83 million tonne in 2004-05, 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08 (April 07-Jan. 08) respectively. The average price of cement has increased sharply from Rs. 158/- per bag in December, 2005 to Rs. 225/- per bag in March, 2007, but thereafter it has largely stabilized showing an increase of only 2.67% between March, 2007 and January, 2008. The details are given in the Statement (See below). Any increase in the costs of inputs like cement, steel etc. will have a consequential impact on the construction industry.

(c) and (d) The Builder's Association of India have represented against alleged cartelization by the cement manufacturers. The Monopolies and Restrictive Trade Practices Commission (MRTPC), a quasi-Judicial body, is already seized of the matter. The Government has taken a number of measures to increase the supply of cement in the market. These include facilitating import by reducing the import duty on cement to 'Nil', removal of countervailing duty and special-additional customs duty. Further, MMTC Ltd., a Government of India enterprise, TANCEM, a State Government enterprise of Tamil Nadu and M/s Puducherry Agro Services Industries Corporation (PASIC) have been given a special dispensation to import cement under the provisions of Cement (Quality Control) Order, 2003 to enable availability of significant quantities of imported cement in the market. With these measures, the average price of cement has stabilized to a large extent showing an increase of only 2.77% between March, 2007 and January, 2008.
